LOVE AND LOVE.

You see there is a mighty difference between love and love. There's the love which is affection, there's the love which is cupboard love and there's the love which is just simply love-love and sanguinity or association, the second is a lively hope of future comfits, and either is sufficiently explicable. But the third has its roots apparently in mere hap-hazard and causelessness. Miss Herzog who has been visiting Miss Henshaw, Miss Sheridan, Miss and isn't explicable by any means whotsoever, and yet it is far and away the violentest of the three. It falls as the lightning from the clouds and Miss O'Hara and Miss Finnle of strikes whom it will. Though I mix Tempe spent Saturday afternoon in the I trust with your feminine intuition you follow me.

"No," said Annunziata, without compunction, her eyes on the distance, "I don't know what you mean." . "Thank heaven you don't; pray heaven you never may," said the inconsequential friend. "For love-love is a plague. You meet a person for example, in a garden. You know nothing whatever about her, not even her name though you fear it may be Schmidt. You meet her not more than half a dozen times all told. And suddenly you wake up one morning and discover that she has become to you the person of first importance in the world." -From Henry Harland's "My Friend

THE SET $1.

Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticie; CUTICURA OINTMENT to instantly allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal; and CUTICURA RESOLVENT PILLS, to cool and cleanse the blood, and expel humour germs. A SINGLE SET is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring skin, scalp, and blood humours, eczemas, rashes, itchings, and irritations, with loss of hair, when the best physicians, and all other remedies fail.

Assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and chafings, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Millions of Women use Cuticura SOAP in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and excoriations, for too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and mothers. No other medicated soap is to be compared with CUTICURA for preserving, purifying, and heautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, the BEST skin and complexion soap, and the BEST toilet and baby
